NEW DELHI: India seems to be at the top of global real estate investors' priority list with the country recording the third highest growth in investment volume of over 140% at $5 billion in 2014 compared to 2.1 billion in 2013.

This was the highest investment levels reached in the last five years which helped India feature amongst the top 20 highest priority investment markets in 2014, said real estate consultancy Cushman & Wakefield.
